LIFE THOUGHTS: July 15 – Pentecost VIII (Proper 10B) – Adoption embodies the whole truth and love of God (Ephesians 1:3-5). He came into our flesh, gave it as lifeblood sacrifice, and raised it up from restful death just to adopt sinners as His own sons and daughters. Christians promote and pursue adoptions not primarily as a solution to infertility but as extension of the grace we've received to our neighbors in need. Ever-present Lord, open our eyes and our arms to the ones left forsaken by the devil's deceptions. Amen.

TIME AND TALENT SURVEYS: Now online! Each believer has a part to play in the Body of Christ. We need everyone! If you have not done so, please consider completing the Time & Talent Survey distributed at worship on March 4th. You may now complete this by going to the church website, www.stlucaslcms.org. Click on the rotating slide. Paper forms are still available on the narthex table. You may return them to Sharon Majoros, or the mailbox outside the church office.
